

Shirley SCARBOROUGH

Author, speaker, & minister Shirley Scarborough will show your audience how to journey from heartbreak to hope through the power of faith.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Shirley H. Scarborough is a beacon of faith and resilience from Elmont, Virginia. A devoted wife, mother, and grandmother, she has served as an Evangelist for over 18 years at The Word Church International Ministries. In the wake of unimaginable loss, Shirley founded Cry Loud, Spare Not, Speak Up, a nonprofit supporting women affected by domestic violence. Her annual "I Am Enough, I Know My Worth" conference inspires self-esteem and empowerment among women and girls. Recognized as a Hometown Hero in 2024, her unwavering faith and commitment continue to transform lives, inspiring others to find strength and purpose in adversity.

POWER TOPICS

- Turn tears into triumph and turn pain into powerful change
- How to navigate the aftermath of loss
- How to uncover your inner strength and renew your purpose
- How to build a transparent relationship with your difficult child
- How to identify, navigate, and overcome domestic violence.
- How to discover the resilience of rejection.
- How to turn unforgiveness into power

Facebook- Cry Loud, Spare Not, Speak Up

Instagram-@AuthorShirleyScarborough

TikTok-@author_shirley.s

@CryLoudSpeakUp

authorshirleyscarborough@gmail.com

The Transformative Memoir of Faith, Courage, & Resilience